Re: Robert D. Mabe, Inc. v. OptumRx
No. 3:17-cv-01102

Dear Judge Mehalchick:

Thank you for your order of yesterday rescheduling the hearing to May 28. Unfortunately, I will be away on a short vacation on that date. I have conferred with opposing counsel who does not object to a continuance, and we jointly suggest the following dates if they are acceptable to the court: June 10, 19, 20.

Obviously, if those dates do not work for the Court we will make ourselves available for others.

Please accept my apology for the misfiling of our summary judgment motion. I can assure Your Honor that I will fully comply with the local rules and the Court's preferences going forward.

My clients appreciate your willingness to hear their case on the merits, in spite of the procedural problems.

Respectfully,
